PRESS RELEASE

Social Protection Policy consultation with Heads of Departments within the Ministry

Kingstown, St. Vincent and the Grenadines;

The Ministry of National Mobilisation with responsibility for social protection of the poor and vulnerable launches its Social Protection Policy Consultation process which will be executed for a two-month period working with clients, stakeholder agencies and communities, to develop a policy framework to improve protection efforts of the poor and vulnerable in the society. This policy consultation process is an activity in collaboration with the Ministry of Finance and Economic Planning and the World Bank that comes to an end in July 2022.

In this first instance, the participants are Heads of Departments within the Ministry; this will be followed by communities, stakeholder agencies and the general public of St. Vincent and the Grenadines.
